WILL CAMPBELL BE SIDETRACKED?

Interurban Company Likely to Pass by on the East Side.

President Hale and other officials of the Interurban Railroad a few days since were in this vicinity with a view of ascertaining as to whether it would not be more feasible to have the short line run to Los Gatos to the east of the creek rather than to make the circuitous route through Campbell and over the Almaden trestle. Following up this clew the PRESS editor struck out on a tour of investigation and he is able to state that a survey has been made and stakes set for a cut-off line to leave the present line at the corner of Johnson and Campbell avenues, thence south on Johnson avenue to the Dry Creek, thence in an air line to the Los Gatos road at Bohnett's corner, crossing over the private properties of Gardner, Hanger, and others.

In looking at the map we find that this route is considerably shorter to Los Gatos and free from turns, and bridges (save the inexpensive one over the dry creek). We presume the company wishes to avoid the expense of its share of the Almaden trestle, and to save time on the Los Gatos short line. Or it may be, as hinted at, that the Almaden branch is to be converted into an electric road, the steam road to be abolished. A lot of creosote poles and bridge timber are now piled up at the depot, said to be for this purpose.

At any rate the few Campbell people who are "taking notice" are wondering whether the town is to be sidetracked on a "spur." This is where the town Commercial League, or better still the Town Trustees (if we had been wise enough to have carried incorporation) could do some important work for the town.

I. J. Comer's Funeral.

The funeral of the late I. J. Comer was held Sunday afternoon from the family residence on McKinley avenue, off Meridian road, under the auspices of the society of California Pioneers, of which deceased was a member. He was born in Indiana seventy four years ago and came to California in 1856, settling in Placer county. He came to Santa Clara county in 1887. He lived happily with his wife, who survives him, at the beautiful orchard home on McKinley avenue, until death called him hence. He was a man well liked by all who knew him, of sunny disposition, a splendid neighbor, and one who will be greatly missed.

Dr. Welty D. Miner wishes to announce that his afternoon office hours have been changed to from 1 to 3 o'clock, instead of from 2 to 4 as formerly.

Dr. and Mrs. French of Saratoga were here to attend Mr. Campbell's funeral.

BENJAMIN CAMPBELL GONE.

Father of the Town of Campbell Lives to Ripe Old Age.

Benjamin Campbell has passed to his reward, after a long and eventful career, at an age of over eigthy years.

He had been an active man in all these years, and only very recently did he give up his duties, which he has so successfully carried on. He had been ill in February but he had regained his health sufficiently it was thought to admit of his attending the Old Settlers' celebration at the cannery. After this event Mr. Campbell had a relapse, pneumonia resulting. After a severe illness he seemed on the road to recovery until a few days before his death he became worse and all hope of saving him vanished. He passed away on Wednesday morning at eight o'clock.

It would be useless for us to even attempt to tell of the traits of character of this truly good man—who was beloved by all on account of his gentle and forbearing disposition, his generosity, his noble character. To very many of us he seemed more like an affectionate father than simply a fellow townsman, and many the heartache has there been because of Uncle Ben Campbell's taking off. He leaves behind as a priceless legacy a character that will ever be present to inspire his posterity and others to nobler living.

Mr. Campbell is survived by his wife, a son, J. H. Campbell, a daughter, Mrs. S. G. Rodeck, and many grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mrs. Wm. H. Swope, a daughter, died a few years ago.

William Campbell of Oakland arrived about an hour before his brother passed away and the two conversed with each other for some time. David Campbell of Portersville, another brother, was unable to be here, owing to sickness.

The funeral was held from the Methodist church in Campbell, on Friday at 2 o'clock, the services being conducted by Rev. L. S. Jones, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of San Jose, of which the deceased had long been a prominent member. Rev. A. H. Needham, and Rev. G. E. Atkinson, the two local clergyman, assisted in the services. The address of Rev. L. S. Jones was a beautiful tribute to the character and worth of deceased.

Favorite songs of the family were sung at the church and at the cemetery by a quartet composed of Mrs. Mildreth Spencer-Hartman, Mrs. E. C. Hurlbert, E. C. Hurlbert, and Dr. P. C. Hartman. Mrs. G. S. Robson accompanied on the organ.

The pall bearers were James Sutherland, W. K. Jenkines and Samuel Brown, representing the church to which the deceased belonged, and C. H. Whitman, J. F. Duncan and George Whitney, representing the town of Campbell.

The funeral was an exceedingly large one, the church being inadequate to accommodate the large number of relatives, friends and citizens of the valley.

The interment took place in the family plot at Santa Clara and the Society of California Pioneers assisted in the services. The floral pieces were many and beautiful.

Benjamin Campbell was born in Muhlenburg county, Kentucky, October 16, 1826. He was the son of William and Agnes Campbell, who in 1839, emigrated from Kentucky to Saline county, Missouri, and in 1846 crossed the almost tractless plains and pathless mountains to California, settling in Santa Clara county.

At the time of his removal Mr. Campbell was just reaching manhood, consequently all his active business life was spent in this county. In many pioneer enterprises he was associated with his father. On their arrival they found the country in a turmoil which terminated in its conquest, not by force of numbers but by American valor. In this work of creating a new order of things father and son had a part.

In the spring of 1851 Mr. Campbell purchased the site of the home which he occupied to the present. His original purchase was a squatter's right. Other parties claiming it under Mexican grants, litigation followed which extended over a period of eighteen years. Finally Mr. Campbell bought a quit-claim of the parties, and obtained from the United States government a patent of 160 acres, all but 52 acres of which was later sold at different times.

In 1851 Mr. Campbell returned to Saline county, Missouri, and on Christmas day was united in marriage to Miss Mary L. Rucker. In the following year he recrossed the plains with his wife, and established his residence permanently on his purchase. Three children were born to the couple, all of whom were later married and settled near the home of their parents.

Mr. Campbell, throughout his entire life here was largely interested in agriculture and horticulture. He planted his land to fruit trees and had one of the best orchard homes in the valley. He was largely interested in the important business enterprises of the town, chief of which are the Campbell Water Co., the Bank of Campbell and Campbell Fruit Growers' Union. He always took an active interest in public affairs, being a school trustee for many years, a director of the Campbell Hall Association, a trustee of the Campbell Methodist Episcopal Church, and a member of the Society of California Pioneers.

The citizens of this town and locality owe very much of their present happiness and blessings to the wisdom of Mr. Campbell in placing proper safeguards around the sale of property so that no crime-breeding places have been able to obtain a foothold here.

GONE TO HIS REWARD.

Vincent Mortimer Ayres Passes Very Peacefully to Final Rest.

Saturday morning about six o'clock Vincent Mortimer Ayres was called to his reward at a ripe old age, passing peacefully away at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. H. Whitman, on Central avenue, with whom he had lived during the past few years with his wife, she having preceded him to the better land but a year or more ago.

The deceased was born at New Canaan, Conn., on August 3, 1821. He married Miss Eliza F. Moore, and made an eventful honeymoon trip from Andover, Ill., to Joliet, a distance of 160 miles in a buggy. With his wife he settled in Andover, where he engaged in the milling business until 1863, when he removed to Galva, Ill., and later to Arkansas, Kas., always following the same trade, that of milling.

In 1885 they came to California and purchased a large orchard on the Los Gatos road below the Cambrian school house, where they resided until failing health made it necessary for them to remove to Campbell a few years ago.

Mr. Ayres was a man of splendid ability, a man of exemplary habits, one that you would look to as an example of true manhood. He leaves behind a most beautiful record.

He was a prominent member of the Baptist Church of San Jose and took a great interest in religious affairs. He leaves five children, Mrs. C. H. Whitman of Campbell, A. J. Ayres of Nevada, C. M. Ayres of San Jose, Mrs. H. Yount of Independence, Kansas, Mrs. J. F. Boyd of Neligh, Neb., besides fourteen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Supervisor Roll is having a cement bulkhead put in adjoining the wing of the cement bridge on the south side of Campbell avenue. This will be for the protection from further washing by the creek waters. We haven't heard how much of a bulkhead will be built, but no doubt it is to be a substantial one.

Easter at the Churches.

At the Methodist church the Sunday school furnished an Easter program at 11 o'clock. Songs and recitations occupied the first half hour; the remainder was taken up with the story of the closing scenes of Christ's life on earth as told in scripture, song and verse. In the evening the pastor, Rev. A. H. Needham, delivered an Easter sermon and special music by the choir was a feature. Mr. Arthur Moore of San Jose assisted the choir in the morning service.

Easter Sunday was observed at the Congregational church by a special service by the Sunday school at 11 a. m. in charge of Dr. E. C. Abbott. A splendid program was presented. In the evening the men of the church conducted the meeting. Brief addresses were given by several of the members. Following were the topics: "Easter, a Test from History," Dr. E. C. Abbott; "Easter, the First Day of Hope," Prof. J. F. Smith; "The Victorious Power of Easter," Dr. C. N. Cooper; "Easter, a Twentieth Century Message," A. K. Joy. The concluding address was, "An Easter Message," by the pastor, Rev. Geo. E. Atkinson.

Yours? If so, what is the cause? Does a little worry or overwork bring on that tight, sore, uneasy, aching sensation at the base of the brain just back of the ear? Have you ever thought that it might be due to your eyes? Could we convince you by relieving it with glasses? This is one of the "eye headaches" so common with those having pronounced refractive errors. Proper glasses will correct the defect. The cause removed, the effects disappear.

We have stopped hundreds and hundreds of headaches, probably we can yours too.
